

Collections Care and Management, 101. Connecting to Collections Workshops

Join us for a workshop on how to care and maintain historic collections of all types.

Tuesday - August 31, 2010
9:30 AM to 4:00 PM

Williamson County Public Library
1314 Columbia Avenue, Franklin, TN 37064

The workshops will emphasize:

- How to create a suitable storage environment for archival materials, historic textiles, artifacts, photos, and most types of museum objects.
- How to care for and document small collections housed in historic sites, libraries, and other historical societies.
- The basics of collections management including assigning and affixing numbers.

This workshop is presented by the Tennessee State Library and Archives and the Tennessee State Museum and is funded by a grant from the Institute for Museum and Library Services.

Co-hosted by:

The Williamson County Public Library System

The workshop is free to participants and lunch will be provided.

For directions, please visit the Williamson County Library website:

<http://lib.williamson-tn.org>

Registration is limited, so please contact us as soon as possible to reserve your space.

To register please contact:

Amber Gilmer

615-253-6450

Amber.Gilmer@tn.gov

OR

Myers Brown

615-253-0123

Myers.Brown@tn.gov